

Cellar Wines

Red

- Margaux 2016 50
Declassified grapes from a bumper harvest at THE top estate in the appellation, but nobody is supposed to know where they come from. A deep garnet and purple, with a glorious rich fruit nose. A long finish. Made to be drunk young but it will improve for the each of the next ten years.
- Chateau Pierhem, Pomerol 2000 75
100% Merlot delivering roundness with a velvet taste. In 2000. Pierre-Emmanuel Janoueix took over from his father and this was his first vintage. Elegant notes of wood, cocoa, flowers and delicate spices.
- Chateau Talbot, St Julien 2003 90
Black olive tapenade intermixed with red and black currants, new saddle leather, liquorice and spice aromas. A medium-bodied, juicy, succulent, fully mature 2003. 'There is no reason to defer your gratification any longer' says Robert Parker. A marvellous Grand Cru Classé perfect for drinking now.
- Burgundy: Vosne Romanee Domaine Chezeaux 2013 60
Rich, dark but feminine fruits are packed into this lovely opulent wine. A cracking red burgundy that lives up to its price tag.
- Volnay Les Grands Poisots Louis Boillot 2012 60
A very low yielding harvest resulted in a wine with deep fruit and wild damson flavours that needed at least five years to balance and mature into this lovely Volnay.
- Rhone: Clos Des Papes 2004, Chateauneuf-du-Pape 80
Paul Avril is one of THE great makers of Rhone wines. Massive, long, Blackberry, cherry, liquorice, almost smokey; smooth, supple. Totally gorgeous but do let us decant it for twenty minutes to open it out.
- Chateau De Beaucastel Red 2005 100
This might have breached the £100 mark but is a magnificent wine. Very rich fruit with both plum and red berry and spicy hints, earthy, lots of structure. This wine will be great in a decade, but ours will be long gone by then. Do give us time to decant.
- Languedoc: Mas de Daumas Gassac 2012 (75cl/magnum) 60/120
Described as the 'Lafite of the Languedoc'. Generous intense bouquet of dark fruits, blackcurrant, with spicy notes. Harmonious palate, fruits, good tannins, elegant finish. Decant if at all possible.
- Argentina: Michel Torino Altimus Malbec 2011 55
61% Malbec, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Cabernet Franc. This is made high in the Andes and is MASSIVE. Without cheese or red meat, the fruit, oak and alcohol may overwhelm the delicate drinker.

White

- Savigny Les Beaune Les Montchevoy Patrick Javillier 2013 55
Savigny has a reputation for great red wine, but white winemaking star Patrick Javillier has used his considerable skills and experience from Meursault to create a very creamy and generously full white wine. Rich and stunning
- Clos Des Papes White 2004 110
These whites age beautifully with that edge of oxidisation that adds layers to flavour to the honey and apricot fruitiness and the stone and almond that emerge with age. Needs opening for at least half an hour.
- Au Bon Climat, Santa Barbara County, California 2017 50
One of our favourite wines and truly a fantastic example of a great chardonnay. Creamy & buttery taste with a well rounded fruit flavour, this is a wine to be enjoyed. Goes well with poultry dishes.
- Sweet Bordeaux: Sauternes 2016 (1/2 bottle) 30
Declassified grapes from the best Chateau in Sauternes. A golden hue of aromatic exotic fruit and citrus flavours. Complex, round and well balanced with a long and lingering finish that shows off it's immense pedigree. Lovely drinking now, it will be truly special in 15 years but we won't be waiting that long.
