

Coming for drinks...Updated 23rd Sept

Booking is the easiest and best way to enjoy food and drink at the restaurant. We will have limited availability for walk in drinking and dining.

We are constantly reviewing everything as we learn and the rules change.

For a while, the idea of a casual standing drink will be difficult given the constraints and rules the hospitality industry have to adopt.

All we ask is that you are respectful of the systems and policies that we have to manage.

As with ALL our communication at present, the best way to enjoy a drink is to have it with a meal that you've booked.

The island across the water is now closed.

1. We have river benches and a beer tent for walk in seated drinks, the bar area is now set up for dining and drinking table service
2. All internal tables may be needed for diners taking priority
3. We are not having any standing drinking. All drinks can be consumed at seated tables of a maximum of 6 guests
4. We have no extra space for drinkers inside if it rains and all inside tables are taken, the beer tent has a limited capacity
5. If you are drinking in your social bubble, we advise that you arrive together to avoid queueing or confusion with multiple people trying to join existing tables
6. Guests with dogs are allowed outside in the benched areas and the beer tent
7. All tables are on a first come first served basis, and we ask that you leave them in the positions they are laid out in
8. We may need to turn your table to allow the next set of guests in, this will be communicated to you on seating
9. As we are now table serving all guests there may be a delay in service at busy times

We hope that this clears up some of the questions that you have.

We appreciate your patience as we all try to adapt to the changing of the rules.
