Cellar Wines

Red

- Margaux 2016 50
Declassified grapes from a bumper harvest at THE top estate in the appellation, but nobody is supposed to know where they come from. A deep garnet and purple, with a glorious rich fruit nose. A long finish. Made to be drunk young but it will improve for the each of the next ten years.
- Chateau Talbot, St Julien 2003 90
Black olive tapenade intermixed with red and black currants, new saddle leather, liquorice and spice aromas. A medium-bodied, juicy, succulent, fully mature 2003. 'There is no reason to defer your gratification any longer' says Robert Parker. A marvellous Grand Cru Classé perfect for drinking now.
- Volnay Les Grands Poisots Louis Boillot 2012 60
A very low yielding harvest resulted in a wine with deep fruit and wild damson flavours that needed at least five years to balance and mature into this lovely Volnay.
- Chateau De Beaucastel Red 2005 100
This might have breached the £100 mark but is a magnificent wine. Very rich fruit with both plum and red berry and spicy hints, earthy, lots of structure. This wine will be great in a decade, but ours will be long gone by then. Do give us time to decant.
- Haut Batailley, Pauillac, 2010 85
A great year that is time to start opening. Give us 30 minutes' notice to let this open and allow the fruits to balance the cedar, spice-box tannins. This will still be drinking well in 15 years but life's too short.
- Languedoc: Mas de Daumas Gassac 2018 (75cl/2012 magnum) 60/120
Described as the 'Lafite of the Languedoc'. Generous intense bouquet of dark fruits, blackcurrant, with spicy notes. Harmonious palate, fruits, good tannins, elegant finish. Decant if at all possible.
- Mercurey 1er Cr Naugues, Charton, 2017 55
A rich and fleshy wine from this deep clay vineyard with generous, full spicy flavours. Typical of the area in all but price.
- Argentina: Michel Torino Altimus Malbec 2015 55
61% Malbec, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Cabernet Franc. This is made high in the Andes and is MASSIVE. Without cheese or red meat, the fruit, oak and alcohol may overwhelm the delicate drinker.

White & Sweet

- Clos Des Papes White 2004 110
These whites age beautifully with that edge of oxidisation that adds layers to flavour to the honey and apricot fruitiness and the stone and almond that emerge with age. Needs opening for at least half an hour.
- Au Bon Climat, Santa Barbara County, California 2019 50
One of our favourite wines and truly a fantastic example of a great chardonnay. Creamy & buttery taste with a well rounded fruit flavour, this is a wine to be enjoyed. Goes well with poultry dishes.
- Chassagne Montrachet Les Ensegnieres, Colin 2015 70
This property neighbours Batard Montrachet and has some of the volume and power of its more celebrated neighbour. Chiselled and nutty with a long finish
- Sweet Bordeaux: Sauternes 2016 (1/2 bottle) 30
Declassified grapes from the best Chateau in Sauternes. A golden hue of aromatic exotic fruit and citrus flavours. Complex, round and well balanced with a long and lingering finish that shows off it's immense pedigree. Lovely drinking now, it will be truly special in 15 years but we won't be waiting that long.
